

Bio: Ambassador Judah Lion aka Jon MB aka PodCAstr0 aka blockchain_ezra - Ambassador of Tribal Wellness

Judah Lion, an accomplished Ambassador of Wellness, is a specialized advocate for the holistic well-being of the Erie Indian MoundBuilders Tribal Nation. With a rich background encompassing health coaching, wellness promotion, innovative blockchain technology, indigenous research and diplomacy, Judah brings a unique blend of skills to his role.

As an expert in wellness advocacy, Judah has co-created and facilitated transformative wellness projects that champion the principles of agroforestry, wellness micronations, and sustainable living. His journey is defined by a passionate commitment to empowering individuals and the community to lead healthier lives.

At the forefront of Web3 development, Judah understands the potential of technology to elevate our community's wellness initiatives and drive sustainability. His proficiency in this emerging field positions him as a valuable resource for pioneering wellness solutions.

Drawing from his experiences as a security professional, Judah has mastered the art of ensuring safety while forging positive relationships within diverse communities. His adaptability, problem-solving abilities, and commitment have played a pivotal role in the success of his multifaceted career.

In his role as Ambassador of Wellness, Judah is dedicated to realizing the community's goals. His mission is to promote holistic wellness, preserve cultural heritage, advocate for sustainability, and create a culture of well-being that benefits all members of our tribe.

Judah Lion's Vision and Focus serve as a source of inspiration for all who share in the tribe's journey towards holistic wellness.
